SUBJECT : Security Protection of Microforms

Attached is a memorandum originating from the IHC Micrographics Working Group for consideration by the Security Committee concerning the problem of emergency destruction of microforms in the Intelligence Community. NSA has already been in contact with the central office in the Department of Defense for anticompromise emergency destruct matters to put together a comprehensive requirement for emergency destruct equipment of various kinds on behalf of the cryptologic community. In the meantime, we would appreciate your help in support of this effort and any advice your committee might be able to provide in solving the specific problem of emergency destruction of microforms.
